CORNISH ARTIST EXHIBITS AT LANDER GALLERY

watercolour paper and is 107 cm x 78 cm. It will also include her work The White Boat, a view of the Scilly Isles. It is larger, at 110 cm x 90 cm and is in acrylics on canvas.

A Truro art gallery is exhibiting the work of a prominent Cornish artist for the next couple of months.

The Lander Gallery is showing the work of Joanna Commings from Wadebridge in its special New Year sale, which runs from 18 January to 4 March.

The show features her painting Across to Stepper Point - viewed from Daymer Bay near Rock in Cornwall. This is in acrylics on handmade

"I took part in the autumn Colours exhibition at the Lander Gallery last September and sold several paintings," says Joanna.
