

wiltshiretimes.co.uk

for unique artistic creations

Miss Watts' porcelain pieces on plinths on Burnham-on-Sea beach and, inset, a first place prize winner, White Horse Waves, featured at Miss Watts' exhibition

Burns Night treat

TICKETS are now on sale for a Burns Night Supper on January 25 at the Holy Trinity Church in Church Street, Bradford on Avon. Tickets cost £20 each and are available by calling 01225 864270.

New sign approved

PLANS to replace the fascia sign and add lights to the sign of The Dandy Lion in Market Street, Bradford on Avon, have been approved.

Home to go ahead

THE building of a new home and alterations to an existing home in 139 Winsley have been granted planning permission.

Stables to be built

A PLANNING application for the building of three timber stables at a field adjoining Ashley Lane, Winsley, has been granted planning permission.

£1.4k raised at fair

DILTON Marsh Primary School's Christmas fair raised £1,400 in aid of the school.

Coffee morning

A CHURCH coffee morning is taking place at the Dilton Marsh Memorial Hall on January 15 from 10am.

www.bhcamping.co.uk

WILTSHIRE'S PREMIER WALKING BOOT & CLOTHING SPECIALISTS

UP TO 50%
OFF

BCH
Camping and Leisure