'Lower Farnham Lane at Christmas' is the work of Susie Lidstone, who lives in the town.

"I contacted the hospice just before Christmas showing them some of my work and they asked me to paint a picture for the Christmas card," she explains. "It just needed to satisfy them that the subject was right for the hospice, which thankfully my work delivered."

Phyllis Tuckwell Hospice Care is the only hospice care service for adult patients, and their families, across the whole of West Surrey and part of North East Hampshire.

"I am really pleased," says Susie. "The cause is very close to my heart because of the wonderful work that they do and I had a friend who ended her days with happiness at the hospice."
