

Visitors in the picture

AN EXHIBITION at Hopetoun House in August will see two artists sketch and photograph portraits of visitors during the event.

Around 20 works by Sarah MacDonald, a former BBC broadcaster, and Priscilla Brightman, an Edinburgh College of Art graduate, will be displayed from August 2-31 at the stately home to the west of the city. Visitors will have the opportunity to meet the artists every Sunday the exhibit is on, with doors open between 10.30am and 4pm.
